WEHRENBURG THEATRES AND THE SALVATION ARMY
PRESENT THE 2015 CANS FILM FESTIVAL
Popular Food Drive Includes All Show times Prior to 5 PM!

(St. Louis, MO – November 2015) – Wehrenberg Theatres will once again host its 30th annual “Cans Film Festival” to benefit The Salvation Army’s “Tree of Lights” campaign. The event will take place Saturday, December 5th. Guests who bring five canned food items to a Wehrenberg Theatre will receive free admission to any movie that day starting before 5 PM. Bring three canned food items to the St. Clair Cine in Fairview Heights.

Guests who bring an additional ten cans or more per person (15 or more total per person or 13 or more at St. Clair 10 Cine) will also receive a free movie pass for a future visit. In addition, Wehrenberg Theatres will again award a year-long movie pass to the single largest donation received in the theatre circuit.

Cans Film Festival, the area’s most popular food drive, stocks the local food pantries every year during the holiday season when those less fortunate need it most. With the help of the sponsors UPS, iHeartMedia radio and, of course, the volunteers of the Salvation Army, the 2014 campaign stockpiled over 220,000 canned food items during the one-day event. This event provides meals not only at the holidays but well into the summer months. Organizers hope to set a new record this year.
